[The procedure required for all new students]

Paying Tuition and Fees

Congratulations on enrolling or advancing at Waseda University!
 Students are required to pay their tuition and fees by automatic debit transfer.

* "Tuition and fees" is a collective term for "tuition," which covers tuition and seminar fees as well as "miscellaneous fees," which covers faculty fees and membership fees of the Student Health Promotion Mutual Aid Association, etc.

Automatic debit transfer for paying tuition and fees is available from the next Fall Semester

Register your bank account information via the Internet

Register your bank account after enrollment

The account registration procedure for students who enroll or advance their studies at Waseda University in April 2024 will start on

April 15, 2024 (Mon.)

When the registration procedure becomes available, we will notify students at their Waseda email addresses.

* Students advancing to a higher-level course at Waseda University and wish to continue using the same account need to follow the same procedure.

* For students of Waseda University Senior High School, Waseda University Honjo Senior High School, and Waseda University Junior High School, we will send a notification to their guardians.

You can complete your account registration using your PC, smartphone, or tablet that has Internet access. (There is no need to visit a financial institution.) If you are a native speaker of a language other than Japanese and find it difficult to complete the procedure in Japanese, visit the Waseda Portal Office (WPO) to complete the procedure.

You can specify an account at almost any financial institution in Japan.

The account can be in the name of the student, their guardian, or anyone else.

The account holder must complete the registration procedure. At that time, the Student ID number, cash card PIN number, etc. must be entered.

*The information required varies depending on the financial institution.

No registration fees or withdrawal fees will be charged.

(Waseda University will bear the fees.)

Please refer to the following website for detailed information and procedures regarding the payment of tuition and fees. You can also contact us by e-mail.
